

CALL FOR DANCERS

Billy Cowie is beginning work on an Arts Council England funded dance-film installation entitled 'Outing' and is looking for three female dancers.

The style of the work will be similar to Cowie's (in collaboration with Liz Aggiss) 'Men in the Wall' involving substantial amounts of text, humour and idiosyncratic contemporary dance movement.

If you are interested please send a DVD of yourself performing (must include you speaking) - maximum five minutes duration - and a CV to:

Lisa Wolfe, 92 Lincoln Street, Brighton BN2 9TL

The deadline for receiving DVDs is Monday 7th July.

- Please include a stamped addressed envelope if you would like your DVD returned
- Short-listed candidates will be invited to Brighton for a short interview and screen-test in the second half of July
- Rehearsal and filming will take place in Brighton in August and September.
