

Charlotte Semlyen
Interim Business Manager

Charlotte Semlyen studied History of Art and Design in the Modern period to degree level at De Montfort University in Leicester, graduating in 1993. She went on to pursue a career in dance management and between 1995 and 2003 she worked for companies including Charles Linehan Company, V-TOL and Random Dance, where she was General Manager from 2000-2003. During her employment at Random Dance, the company became resident at Sadler's Wells. Charlotte travelled with the company throughout Europe as well as Hong Kong, Israel, USA and Colombia.

In 2003 Charlotte moved to Brighton and established herself as a freelance arts manager and consultant. She is currently agent to Shobana Jeyasingh; other previous clients include Jasmin Vardimon Company where she was Business Development Consultant.

Charlotte has worked for South East Dance in many different capacities including Interim Manager for Community and Learning, fundraising for Screen Dance and mentoring and fundraising for artists such as Miriam King and the Funkstarz. She is happy to be back in her new role as Interim Business Manager.
