

John Durrant Vice Chair

"I am pleased to be part of South East Dance and in seeing the results of the hard work that our dedicated staff undertake in giving opportunities for people of all ages and abilities to participate in dance".

John is currently Chief Executive of Chequer Mead Theatre and Arts Centre, and Vice Chair and Company Secretary of South East Dance.

He has held senior management posts in BAA and Thorn EMI Lighting having started his business career with ICI and ICI Fibres.

John is also Chair of Governors of a Primary School in East Grinstead, and until recently Chair of Mid Sussex Volunteering.

He has represented England in Latin American and Ballroom Dancesport international competitions.