

Charlotte Miles
Screen Dance Co ordinator

Charlotte discovered her passion for screen dance whilst studying a BA (Hons) degree in Dance and Media Arts at the University of Chichester. As part of her degree course she spent 6 months in Canada studying dance at York University. It was here that Charlotte first came into contact with South East Dance, whilst working as production assistant on four 3-minute wonders commissioned by Channel 4 and Bravo!FACT.

Since graduating in 2005 Charlotte has been working in the field of dance for camera and interactive digital performance. In 2005 she was commissioned by Channel 4, Youth Dance England and South East Dance to make a three minute wonder film with youth dance company Young Anjali.

Charlotte is Screen Dance Coordinator at South East Dance and resident dance filmmaker. Her role includes managing the curation, presentation and distribution of dance films, dance film/video programmes, artist events and screen dance festivals within the region and beyond.
